

Opportunity Commission Based International Contract Procurement

Temporary, Flexible

So, do you love making new connections and want to define your income by your skills? Then we've got a job for you!

We are looking for knowledgeable and passionate people to join our customer procurement team for the 2019 business year. You will be responsible for acquiring new customers and projects in the media sector.

This is a flexible, temporary role based exclusively on numbers and commissions.

WHATS ON OFFER

You will be reaching out to potential customers for our products and in return for each successful, signed and completed contact, you'll earn 10% of the final invoice value excluding external and outward costs.

FLEXIBILITY

You can work at anytime and at any amount you prefer. We do not have any exceptions regarding our choice of customers, therefore you are free to acquire any client that you may reach.

TRANSPARENCY

You'll get insight into the progress of each acquired project as well as a clear performance report for the final invoice.

FAIRNESS

We offer you this financial flexibility at a fair commission of 10% excluding licensing, travel and any other costs out of our reach. For every up order contract of the same client that is signed within the following nine months, you'll earn another 8,9% excluding external costs.
